RIVER AND STEAMBOAT MATTERS.

The river is falling, with 3 feet 5 inches water in the canal last evening. The weather is clear and cool.

The river between Pittsburg and the Big Sandy is at high tide.

The Dacotah passed down for St. Louis on Saturday with seven hundred army wagons for St. Louis.

The Smith & Snyder shipped a heavy cargo of iron by the Union for Pittsburg on Saturday.

The Hettie Gilmore, with a number of army officers, two pieces of canon, and eighty tons of Government stores, left for Owenton on Saturday.

The fine steamer Superior is the mail boat for Cincinnati at noon to-day.

The W. I. Nisley is advertised to leave for Pittsburg at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

The popular steamer Commercial, Capt. C. A. Dravo, will take the mail for Henderson and friend this afternoon. Our popular young friend will be on board, and will be in company with his wife, and will be assisted by Mr. J. W. Green.

The elegant steamer Empire, Capt. Sayers, is the regular packet for Henderson at the usual hour this afternoon, Mr. Alford Davidson in the office.

RETURN OF THE HOME GUARDS.—Our gallant citizen-soldier who responded to promptly to the call to arms on the 16th inst., when it was known that our city was in danger of assault from the rebel forces under Uncle Tom's command, will be gratified to receive the news that Captain Ormsby possesses. He is a gallant, generous, chivalrous gentleman, a son of as loyal a father as Kentucky holds, and we have not been disappointed in him. He is not the man to lift his hand against Kentucky, in aid of the murderers, robbers, and worse than pirates who have invaded Kentucky. We hope soon to see him one of the bravest and most zealous of Kentucky's military defenders.

WOODWARD RACE.—The regular all-meeting over the Woodward Court, near this city, will commence on Saturday next, the 21st, with a prospect of some which has rarely been exceeded.

Second meeting, Saturday next, with the same correspondence that there will be no less than eighty-five horses on the ground, and there will be spirited contests for the very liberal stakes that have been offered. There are already in training over the course many horses which excels upon other fields have rendered them famous in the history of the turf. We have before us the programme of the sport for Saturday, the 5th, for Monday, the 7th, and for Friday, the 11th.

The exercises will open with the race for the challenge vase, valued at $1,000, in which there are four subscribers. The race will be one of four-mile heats, $300 subscription, play or lay, to name.

The sweepsstakes for the 1st, 2nd, 3rd, 4th, 5th, 6th, and 7th will also take place.

Saturday, for which there are twenty-one nominations. Then on Monday will follow the contest for the Association stake, and on the following Friday for the Gulf House stake, all brilliant prizes.

OPENING OF THE DRAMA SEASON.—The regular season of the Louisville Theatres commences this evening, and we hope our citizens will feel inclined to lend it a liberal support.

An old favorite of some season past, Mrs. Lowe, has been engaged, and Mr. McCauley comes among us with the reputation of an excellent leading actor. The management has made arrangements for a succession of stars during the season, and the pieces to-night will be Tom Taylor's admiring his drama, "All That's Not Gold," and the scene of "The Lottery Ticket." Mr. James West's new act-drop will, we think, attract general attention; it is an admirable production of such a nature as to be sure to please.

Mr. West's new act-drop will also take place.

Saturday, for which there are twenty-one nominations. Then on Monday will follow the contest for the Association stake, and on the following Friday for the Gulf House stake, all brilliant prizes.

FAIRFAX'S BANK.—Lexington.—To put an end to all speculation on the subject of the funds of the Farmer's Bank at Lexington, Mo., the Louisville Register has learned from a general who was a witness of the transaction, that after the surrender of the Federal troops at Lexington, the money committed to the charge of Col. Mulligan, in the intrustments, was taken by Gen. Price and Col. Mulligan, conveyed by their orders to the Bank, and thence in their possession counted. The whole sum, coin and bank notes, was $200,000, and this sum, except $15,000, in three packages of $50,000 each, was received. The fifteen thousand dollars in notes, it is conjectured, was stolen by Federal troops at the time of the surrender, and when a less strict guard was kept. This is strengthened by a report from Quincy, that the soldiers, or some of them, were well supplied with money and coin, and the Bank of the Home Guards had received many additional funds.

The time, however, is not far off when the Government will be compelled to make a new audit, and then we shall see what has been done.

Mr. Pennebaker has the following results of which he will be pleased to receive.
